

CERTIFICATE OF ATTAINMENT IN MODERN GREEK

The Department of Classics at the University of Arizona

<http://www.classics.web.arizona.edu/>

The Department of Classics at the University of Arizona has established since 2010 an Examination Center for the Certificate of Attainment in Modern Greek. Candidates must be at least 18 or older to sit for the examination, which is administered worldwide through the University of Thessaloniki and the Centre of Greek Language on behalf of the Greek Ministry of Education.

The University of Arizona
Department of Classics
Learning Services Building 203
1512 E. First St.
PO Box 210105
Tucson, AZ 85721-0105
Email: classics@email.arizona.edu
Telephone: 520-621-1689
Fax: 520-621-3678

CERTIFICATE OF ATTAINMENT IN MODERN GREEK

DEADLINE: Applications are due on March 22, 2012.

CONTACT: Please get in touch with Prof. Mavreli at mavreli@email.arizona.edu for the application form and to determine your examination level.

FORMAT: The four-hour examination tests written and oral skills in seven levels:

- (A1) for children (8-12 years old)
- (A1) for teenagers and adults
- (A2)
- (B1)
- (B2)
- (C1)
- (C2)

DATE OF THE EXAM: May 14 (Levels A1-B1), May 15 (Levels B2,C1) and May 16 (Level C2)

FEES: Level A1: $80

Levels A2+B1: $100

Levels B2-C2: $115

ADVANTAGES: The Certificate of Attainment in Modern Greek

- offers a standardized assessment of proficiency
- satisfies proficiency requirements for the practice of various professions in Greece
- allows foreigners who do not possess a Greek secondary education certificate (P.D. 138/9-7-99) to register at a Greek institution for higher education and to be employed in a Greek civil service position.